

Burhan Choudhry is the Independent Owner of Zync, a specialist Cyber Talent Agency working with some of the biggest brands globally.

Starting just 6 years ago, Zync has successfully developed into the solution for sourcing cyber security talent. For this, Zync earned the award for Best Cyber Recruitment Firm in Europe for 2019-2020.

A natural leader, Burhan is highly committed to his business and colleagues. He has extensive commercial experience, with over 15 years in recruitment and business solutions, and set up Zync from scratch which demonstrates his entrepreneurial mind and business acumen. He also has a huge presence in the recruitment community and will always be an advocate for businesses helping other businesses and working together to succeed.

Born and raised in Stockport whilst working and living in Stockport himself, Burhan is hugely dedicated to the success of Stockport town centre and its growing business district. Burhan employs many local residents and aims to employ over 150 local people into the Stockport HQ. As a result, investing in the future of the town is of huge importance to Burhan and Zync, since it is vital that the company can continue to evolve and thrive in Stockport.